

Bildungsurlaub – Como Lake

Basic Italian Course

Responsible tourism: intercultural relations Italy-Germany

One-week course with mother-tongue qualified teachers

“From Basic to A1”

Starting dates and hours of the course

- ✓ Starting dates: according to the calendar
- ✓ Number of hours: 6 hours (8 lessons of 45 minutes each) from Monday to Friday (total of hours: 30)
- ✓ Number of students: up to 15 students

Aim of the course Starting/final levels

- ✓ Starting level: 0.0
- ✓ Target level: 0.5 (A1 level on the Common European Framework)

At the end of the course the student will reach the A1 level; some competencies of that level are:

- To understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases (concrete use of language)
- To be able to present himself/herself and others and ask questions about personal details as well as answer similar questions (the place where he/she lives, people he/she knows, the things he/she possesses)
- To be able to interact in a simple way with other people talking slowly and clearly

inlingua Method and training material

- ✓ All our classes are carried out by well experienced and mother-tongue teachers, with extensive training in the inlingua method. The focus on communication is guaranteed by the use of our specific educational material, developed and constantly updated by our Pedagogical Department in Bern.

Price per person € 560,00

For further info: + 39 031 43 100 92 – info@inlinguacomo.com

From Monday to Friday, 9.30 am – 1.00 pm and 2.00 pm – 8.00 pm